arrested on the charge of over chargfor a widow, Mrs. Lizzie Ward, of cific House. Liberty township. The warrant is made returnable to the U. S. Court in Topeka. Mrs. Ward alleges that Mr. Bondi charged her $100 for services in obtaining the pension, which is contrary to law.

Walter J. Baker, of Salina, Kansas, in company with his grand father, Judge E. B. Stevens, of Falls City, were in town to-day and gave the Standard a call. They were on their way to Nemaha county, where the Judge formerly lived. Mr. Baker was a student in the High School of this place a few years ago. He is a fine, intelligent young man, and we hope he will enjoy his visit to our State—Humboldt, (Neb.) Standard.

A Sweds by the name of Johnson died of consumption on yesterday morning's east-bound train, a few moments before the train reached the depot. He went from Lindsborg to Denver last spring, hoping to obtain relief. Instead of being improved in health, he grew werse and hastened homeward. A young man sent by the brother-in-law of the deceased, took charge of the corpse.

We are pleased to hear that Mr. E. W. Ober has finally concluded to remain in Salina. It is his future intention,-(after closing out the present business of Ober & Hageman) to engage in dry goods, notions, clothing, and dress and cloak making at the present stand. And until the new business is started up, Mr. Ober will run a clothing establishment at the stand lately occupied by Aug. Eugstrom & Co. A person asks, "why does Boudi
